

Burleigh County Soil Conservation District

Soil Health Workshop 2011 “It’s About Balance”

Wednesday,
January 19, 2011
9:00 am - 4:00 pm
Ramkota Hotel
800 South 3rd St.
Bismarck, ND

Agenda

- 9:00 - 10:00     Registration
Coffee and Donuts
- 10:00-10:15    Welcome and Introduction
- 10:15 - 11:15   Soil Ecology & Nutrient Cycling
James Hoorman, Extension Educator
Cover Crops & Water Quality
Ohio State University Extension
- 11:15 - 12:00   Using Crop Diversity
Dan Forgey, Cronin Farms
Gettysburg, South Dakota
- 12:00 - 1:15    Lunch (Provided by BCSCD)
*RSVP Required by January 14, 2011***
- 1:15 - 1:45     Soil Health: Putting the Pieces Together in Southeast, North Dakota
Mitch & Andy Hoenhause, Lisbon, ND
- 1:45 - 2:30     Homegrown Nitrogen
James Hoorman, Extension Educator
- 2:30 - 2:45     Break
- 2:45 - 4:00     Winter Grazing Strategies
Burleigh County Rancher Panel
Native Rangeland, Cover Crops, Swath, Bale, and Tame Pasture
  - Ron Hein, Wing
  - Todd McPeak, Sterling
  - Darrell Oswald, Wing
  - Mike & Becky Small, Moffit

James Hoorman
Agricultural Systems that mimic the natural world tend to be more efficient, sustainable, and profitable.

Dan Forgey
The longer we are in No-Till with good crop diversity, the more benefits we see.

Mitch & Andy Hoenhause
Eight year No-Till system focused on soil health.

Burleigh County Rancher Panel
Holistic management allows for improvement of all resources... land, money, and quality of life.

An invitation to attend this workshop is extended to farmers, ranchers, spouses, and managing partners. There is no charge to attend this workshop. Register by calling:
701-250-4518 Ext. 3 by January 14, 2011
or register online at www.bcsd.com, so adequate materials and lunch plans can be arranged.

**AN RSVP IS REQUIRED FOR LUNCH****

Sponsored by:

Burleigh County Soil Conservation District NRCS Natural Resources Conservation Service
Dakota Prairies Resource Conservation & Development